What teachers are saying about Careers Collective:

"The delivery was really well done, really interactive considering it was remote. They also covered a great deal with the students who in turn really engaged and gave good feedback. We also liked the podcast that went out to parents and would definitely use them again"

Oakbank School, using Study
Higher funding

"The talk was excellent: Tina pitched it at exactly the right level and it was incredibly well received by the students. I thoroughly recommend the Careers Collective and know that we will definitely be using them again in the future"
