

Project Manager

Project managers are responsible for the planning and execution of projects within a company.

On the daily, you'll be overseeing multiple projects, scheduling and monitoring all team members, problem-solving, and communicating across departments.

Key skills

Written and verbal communication, problem solver, attention to detail, flexibility, organisation.

Social media manager

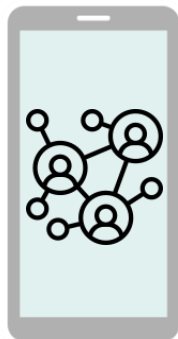

Social media managers are responsible for the promotion and positioning of a brand through various social platforms.

On the daily, you'll be creating new online marketing strategies, content planning and producing, and analysing performance and audience statistics.

Key skills

Written and verbal communication, data analysis, organisation.

Event coordinator

Event coordinators are responsible for the creating, mapping, planning and execution of events. You can specialise in areas such as music, film, business, or weddings.

On the daily, you'll be corresponding with clients to understand their wants and needs.

Key skills

Written and verbal communication, organisation, time management, attention to detail, numeracy, flexibility, creativity.

Data analyst

Data analysts look at datasets and produce reports on findings to help solve problems and better understand their relevant market.

Data analysts use various methods to analyse information, and produce reports and presentations of their findings.

Key skills

Written and verbal communication, statistics, data analysis, problem solver.

Creative designer

Creative designers are responsible for conceptualising and creating visuals for a company based on the brand requirements, budgets, and deadlines.

On the daily, you'll be creating logos, printwork and webpages using software like Adobe, and contributing to the wider marketing strategy of your company.

Key skills

Creativity, written and verbal communication, experience with Adobe, Photoshop, or other graphic design software.

1. Which roles and skills help Ryan to run this programme successfully?
2. Which three jobs would we pick out of the five to help?
3. How would they be involved?
4. How would understanding about how different citizens work together to improve communities help them in their role?