

Interviewee Background Information

Worksheet 4

Name: Aoife McCarty

Religion: Protestant

Lives: Ballymena

Background: Aoife is from a family of three. Her family are of Scots heritage, coming to Ireland in the eighteenth century. Her father was killed by a road bomb planted by the Provisional IRA during the troubles in the 1970s.

Name: Sean O'Donoghue

Religion: Catholic

Lives: Derry

Background: Sean is from a family of five and grew up during the 1960s. His family have struggled to make a living that provided opportunities for Sean and his siblings. They saw Protestant families allocated houses before them by the Protestant local authorities and Sean's father struggled to find work in factories which were run by predominantly protestant unionists.

Interviewee Background Information

Worksheet 4

